Columbia Grafonola

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

A COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA with Columbia Records means a Christmas filled with merry music and the coming year crowded with joy. Coking good dance records, popular song hits, gems of Grand Opera and beautiful symphonies will all combine to give your friends and family many happy days and evenings every day of every year.

More than fifty manufacturers of talking machines have quit business in less than six months. Where can the owners of these machines get repairs? Buy the time-tried COLUMBIA. Select yours for Christmas now. We will deliver when you wish.

Make the HOME Beautiful

Floor Lamps

You have noticed how pretty your neighbor's home has been made to look with a pretty floor lamp. How about your own? Don't you want one for Christmas? Let it be known. See those beautiful hand decorated ones we have.

Living Room Suites

We have these suites in Tapestry, Velour Overstuffed and Velour with Cane Ends and Backs. You are sure to find the one you want here and at absolutely the right price.

Dining Room Furniture

We have the Dining Room Suites complete, or the odd pieces, just as you wish them, in all the finishes. Our selection is good and WE ARE OFFERING BIG REDUCTIONS for cash. May we show you?

Cedar Chests

We have always carried a nice line of Cedar Chests, but this year they are better than ever. A nice Cedar chest makes a most appropriate Christmas present.

Rugs

Let us replace that old rug with a nice, new, bright one for daughter, wife or mother for Christmas. We can surely interest you and help your pocketbook, too.

MILLERSBURG

—Mr. D. P. Jones was in Cincinnati on business from Monday until Wednesday.

—Mr. J. B. Cray attended the State Conference of the Christian church, at Lexington, Tuesday.

—Messrs. D. E. Clarke and E. M. Ingels returned Sunday after a ten-days' hunting trip in Mississippi.

—The Pastors' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church held an all-day meeting Wednesday at the church.

—THE SICK.—Mrs. Clara Shanks is not so well. Mesdames Fannie Norton and Anna Darnell continue about the same.

—Major Nelson, of the M. M. L., addressed the student body of the Millersburg Graded School during Chapel hour Wednesday morning.

—Messrs. Ollie Hurst and John Hill were given the first degree in Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., Monday evening, by the Worshipful Master, R. C. Boman, pro tem.

—The Lexington High School Senior Girls' basketball team will play the Millersburg College team in the Lexington High School gymnasium Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Last game was won by the Lexington girls with a score of 16 to 12.

—The young ladies of the Millersburg College, assisted by the faculty, will conduct union services at the Methodist church, Sunday evening.

ing. The pastors of the churches will make short talks. Special music will be furnished by the young ladies.

—There are several cases of scarlet fever in our little city. It is of a light form and every precautionary measure should be taken to prevent it spreading. It is confined thus far to the children of the Graded School, and is thought by some to have spread from germs in the building, which were not entirely killed after the epidemic in M. M. L. last winter. Prof. Pancaester, principal of the school, and his family, are doing what they can to stamp it out. Several cases of whooping cough have also been reported.

—Mr. Julian Allen, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Allen, was united in marriage on Monday to Miss Josephine Briggs, of Frankfort. His marriage came as a surprise to his many friends. Mr. Allen is only eighteen years old, and his fair young bride about the same age. When Mr. Allen left home Monday it was not known that he was going to get married. And when it was learned late in the afternoon, that the wedding had taken place it was a surprise to almost everyone. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Allen. Mr. Allen is employed at clerk in the Farmers Bank, of which his father is cashier. He is one of our most prominent and popular young men, and belongs to one of the most prominent families of Central Kentucky, being a great nephew of Adjutant-General Henry Allen, who has been prominent in military circles for many years. His bride is a prominent young lady of Frankfort, her father being an attorney-at-law. She was a friend of Miss Margaret Allen, the eldest sister of the groom, making a large number of friends during her stay in Millersburg. The young couple returned to the home of his parents, Wednesday evening, and are now receiving showers of congratulations and good wishes from a large circle of friends and relatives.
